

Huey Long Live! The Kingfish Speaks.

Huey Long once described himself to reporters best by saying, "I am sui generis (one of a kind), just leave it at that." Senator Long truly was one of a kind. He was the most eccentric, controversial and successful politician Louisiana has ever seen. He knew what he wanted to do and he saw to it that it was accomplished, whatever it took. Based on his Share Our Wealth program, he wanted to distribute money from the nation's rich and give it to the poor, thus earning him the reputation of being something of a modern day Robin Hood. Long had his eyes on the presidency, but was shot by an assassin on September 8, 1935, in the corridor of the new Capitol Building. Before he died two days later, he was said to have uttered, "God, don't let me die. I have so much to do."

LOUISIANA'S
OLD STATE CAPITOL
MUSEUM OF POLITICAL HISTORY

100 North Blvd. at River Road
Baton Rouge

The Old State Capitol wishes to also recognize the following:

Don Hines, President of the Louisiana Senate
Joe R. Salter, Speaker of the Louisiana House of Representatives
The Foundation for Historical Louisiana
Hill Memorial Library
Louisiana State Archives
Old State Capitol Collection
Special Collections, Tulane University Library

Terry Fluke
Randy Haynie
Kay Long
Chuck McCoy
Bob Mann
Old State Capitol Advisory Board
Old State Capitol Associates
Old State Capitol Docents

Special thanks to John McConnell, the voice of "Huey Long Live! The Kingfish Speaks".

The Return of the Kingfish

LOUISIANA'S OLD STATE CAPITOL    BATON ROUGE

W. Fox McKeithen, Secretary of State

AGENDA

11:30 a.m.

Press Conference, Program and Welcome —

Mary Louise Prudhomme,
Director, Louisiana's Old State Capitol

Remarks

Honorable W. Fox McKeithen,
Secretary of State

Honorable Kathleen Babineaux Blanco,
Governor

Angele Davis, Secretary,
*Culture Recreation & Tourism,
Office of the Lieutenant Governor*

Special Guest

Kay Long,
Granddaughter of Huey P. Long

11:45 a.m.

Exhibit Open to Press

11:45 a.m.

Huey's Favorite Lunch Served in the 1882 Senate Chamber

12:30 p.m.

Exhibit Tours Every 15 Minutes

Join us in celebrating Huey's 111th birthday with a slice of Prize White Layer Cake created from his wife Rose's recipe found in the "River Road II" cookbook.

Louisiana's Old State Capitol
thanks our sponsors

The Kingfish Club

COURSON NICKEL
Governmental Relations & Issues Management

Altria

Kraft Foods • Philip Morris International • Philip Morris USA

Additional Sponsors

ChevronTexaco

Department of Culture, Recreation & Tourism,
Office of the Lieutenant Governor
Secretary of State W. Fox McKeithen
State of Louisiana
Louisiana's Old State Capitol Foundation